MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

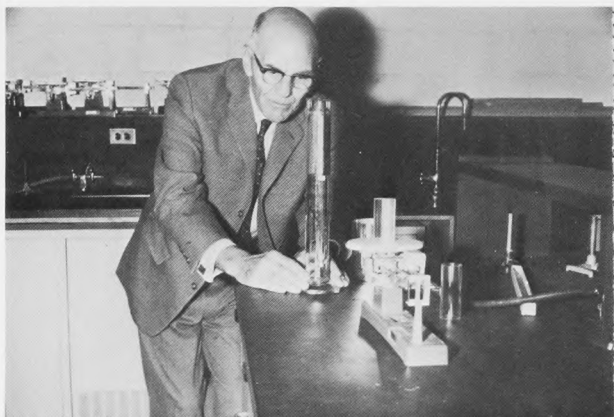

The following pages tell a sketchy but rather interesting story of a number of aspects of life at Concordia. It is safe to say that the pages which make up this yearbook will be cherished for a long time, and that in the years to come they will help to recall many pleasant memories of those days at Concordia.

All too quickly the years of our schooling pass on, and as one year replaces another, and as time and distance carry us onward, the remembrance of our many experiences with those with whom we lived and worked and played becomes a bit more dim. It is then that we appreciate spending a few moments with our school yearbook, living again the many experiences that we had in the years gone by.

It is the hope of all of us here at Concordia that we have had some part in making the years of your life here very pleasant and profitable ones and that this yearbook will be of service in reminding you of your years as a member of Concordia's growing family. To this year's graduates especially we extend our sincere good wishes for your future success. As you leave Concordia, we trust that you will not forget her. And we shall look forward to your return as time and circumstance permit.

Roland A. Frantz,
President.

This page is devoted to the members of Concordia's Service Staff, who in the performance of their duties make life at Concordia so much more pleasant. Our cooks, Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrandt, prepare the daily meals; Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Ristola are our very capable secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. Bogner are our diligent caretakers, and Mr. Becker is our likeable maintenance man.

Mrs. Hildebrandt, Arnice, Ronnie, and Mr. W. Hildebrandt.

OUR ALMA MATER

Far above Sask - atchewan's waters,
Our strong band can ne'er be broken,

With its waves of blue,
It can never die,

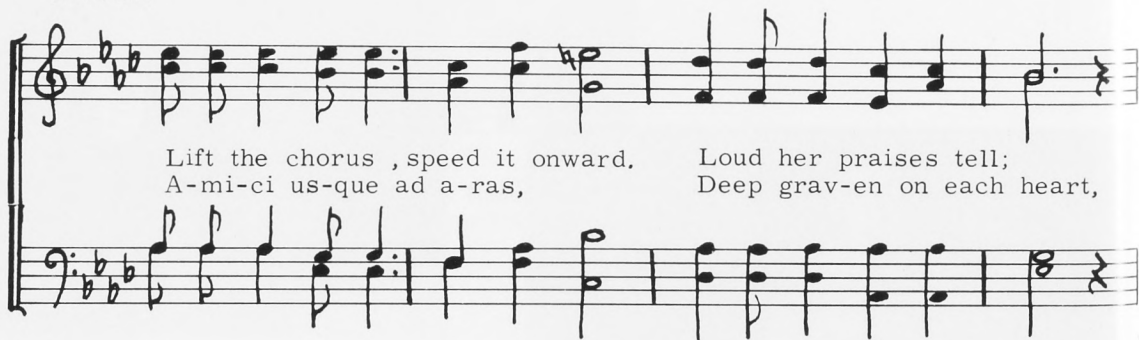

Stands our noble
Far sur-passing

Alma Mater,
Wealth un-spoken,

Glorious to view
Sealed by friend-ship's tie.

Chorus.

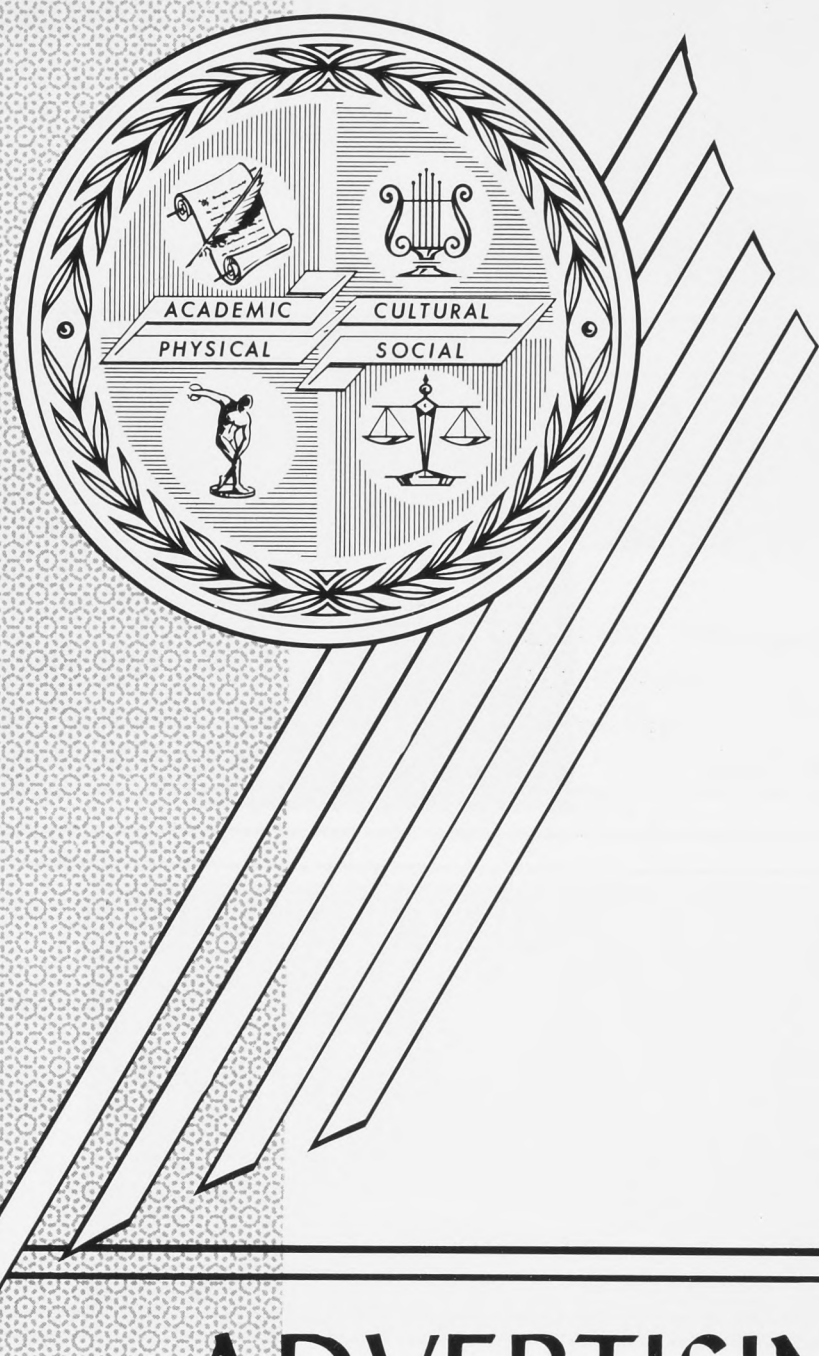

Lift the chorus, speed it onward.
A-mi-ci us-que ad a-ras,

Loud her praises tell;
Deep grav-en on each heart,

Hail to thee! Our Alma Mater,
Shall be found un-wav-'ring, true,

Hail Concordia, hail.
When we from life shall part.

On memorable occasions such as this, it is gratifying to look back at one's individual milestones. The work, the sacrifices, the accomplishments . . . these create growth and achievement. You can now look back with pride at your accomplishments and be pleased at your achievement. Aid Association for Lutherans commends you. -> Pride in growth and achievement is also evident at AAL, where 715,000 members share a fraternal satisfaction as part of America's largest fraternal life insurance society. They participate in fraternal benevolence programs which award scholarships, fellowships and other grants in excess of $1 million annually. And, they enjoy home and family protection through ownership of modern AAL life insurance. They understand just how AAL Remembers the Members.

On this page we have depicted the average day of an average College student. Our average student is of course - Richard Schienbein.

He is up bright and early to make sure that the hubcaps are on Miss Helmkamp's car.

He is also very helpful in straightening the street signs.

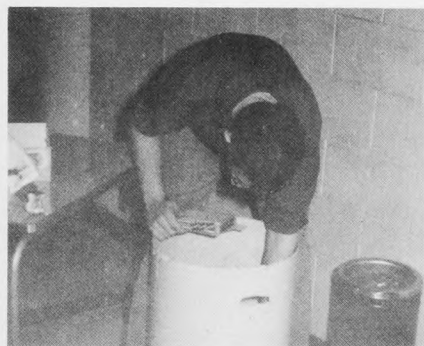

A futile attempt to enter the office after hours. Sorry.

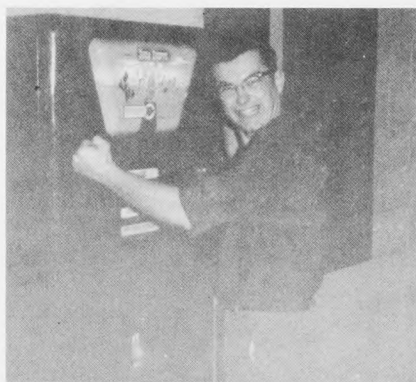

Here we find our model student in class. Oops, where is he? It appears as if he has skipped class again.

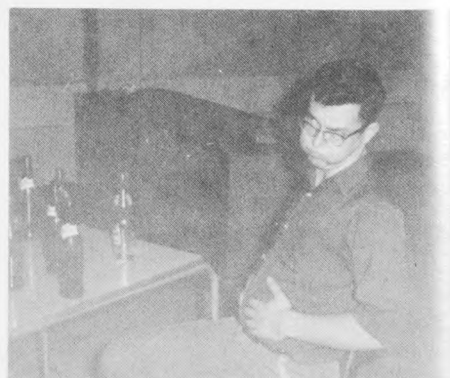

Now he is diligently rearranging the plants in the Library.

Now is he looking for his supper or is he just cleaning up for Mr. Bogner?

It is indeed good that one should release his anger thus.

Ah, supper is now over.

Finally, after supper he retires to the lounge to discuss the world situation with himself.

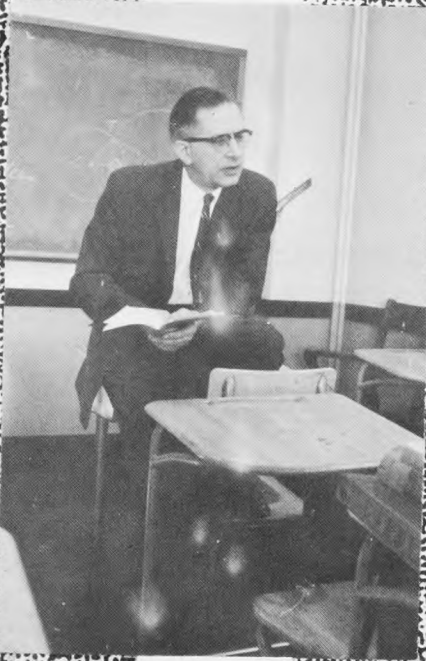

Pictured below are a few members of our Staff in action.
